WILLIAMSBURG, May 2.

Extract of a private Letter from a Gentleman in Edinburgh to his Correſpondent here.

SIR,

By private Letters from London, we learn, That his Majeſty ſent for Mr. Legge, and deſired him to acquaint the Houſe of Commons, that the French King had acted moſt treacherouſly with him, and broke all Faith, and he now underſtood all his Armaments and warlike Preparations were intended againſt his Eaſt-India Dominions; and further, That the French Embaſſador had likewiſe told him abſolute Falſehoods, but, That he was determined to defend Great-Britain, and her Trade, to the utmoſt of his Power; did not intend to enter into any Land-War but put all the Strength of Britian to Sea, and had, with this View, laid aſide all Thoughts of going Abroad, and intended to have a greater Fleet at Sea than ever he had.

When Mr. Legge had delivered this Meſſage, all the Houſe fired to a Man, and approved highly of his Majeſty's Meaſures, and Mr. Speaker made a very pathetic Speech, and aſſured him, that all neceſſary Supplies ſhould be granted.

The French Fleet is ſailed for the Eaſt-Indies; and there are 6000 Marines to be raiſed with all Expedition, which are to be put on Board a ſtrong Squadron to follow them without Delay.

It's reported, the French intended to have concealed their warlike Deſigns, till they had deſtroyed all our Naval Force; this they were to accompliſh by ſending in Ships to all our Ports, in a ſeeming friendly Way, and under Cloud of Night put their execrable Deſign in Execution, by ſetting them a-on Fire.

The King aſked the French Embaſſador, what his Maſter meant by all his warlike Preparations, and told him, it was very ſtrange that no Power in Europe durſt truſt him he was ſo falſe, but he hoped ſoon to have a Fleet at Sea, able and willing, to fruſtrate all his wicked Intentions.

It's alſo reported that the young Pretender is appearing openly in France.

They are beating up both here and at Leith for Sailors, with pretty good Succeſs.

The Three following Adverteſments are inſerted, here, from the laſt Boſton Gazettes, and may ſerve to give us ſome Information of what is going forwards there.

By His Excellency the Governor.

THESE are to order all Soldiers in the Regiment of Foot under my Command, that have been abſent from the Regiment on Furlough, or otherwiſe, to repair to Boſton, by the 13th of April next without fail.

Given under my Hand at Boſton, March 24, 1755.

W. Shirley.

WHEREAS the tenth Day of April next, is the Time ordered for muſtering at Boſton his Excellency Governor Shirley's Provincial Regiment; Theſe are to notify all Officers and Soldiers concerned, that ſtrict Compliance is required to thoſe Orders, and that no further Day will be given; and all Perſons who have taken Money to raiſe Recruits for ſaid Regment, are directed to attend to ſettle their reſpective Accounts at the ſame Time.

Boſton, March 29th, 1755.

John Winſlow, Lieut. Col.

WHEREAS his Majeſty's Ship Mermaid, under my Command, is intended for a Convoy for the ſeveral Veſſels on this Expedition; and it is generally imagined that ſhe may be of great Service, if I can get Seamen ſufficient to mann her:

Theſe are to give Notice to all thoſe brave Seamen that are willing to ſerve his Majeſty King George, on Board the ſaid Ship for the Time of this Expedition, that if they will repair on Board her, or to my Houſe in Hanover Street, they will meet with the beſt of Treatment, enter into immediate Pay, receive all fitting Encouragement, and, if they demand it, be diſcharged at the End of the Expedition.

Given under my Hand at Boſton, the 31ſt of March 1755.

Waſhington Shirley.

At a Meeting of the Truſtees and Subſcribers, &c. April 28, 1755, according to the Scheme, which was re-publiſhed in the laſt Gazette, "for raiſing a Fund for the Relief of the Widows, and Children of ſuch ſubſcribing Clergymen, who ſhould die, and leave their Families in diſtreſſed Circumſtances," the Truſtees &c. met on Saturday the 26th, and on Sunday the 27th the Rev. Mr. Commiſſary Dawſon preached an excellent Sermon ſuitable to the Occaſion, after which was collected by the Truſtees 32*l.* 7*s.* 6*d.* this, together with the Subſcriptions then paid in, amounted to the Sum of 63*l.* 3*s.* 11*d.* which was lodged in the Hands of Mr. Commiſſary Dawſon, 'til the Health of Mr. Thacker their Treaſurer will permit him to come to Town, to whom it will be paid, according to the 6th Article, and who is to let it out to Intereſt upon good Security as ſoon as he conveniently can. In Order to this, thoſe Clergymen, who did not ſend in their Subſcriptions, are earneſtly deſired to do ſo as ſoon as poſſible, that the Whole, which will amount to about 100 Pounds, may be put out together, and the Intereſt applied to the Uſe of the ſaid Fund, that it may in Time be ſufficient to diſcharge the ſeveral Demands, which are likely to be made upon it.

How neceſſary ſuch a Fund as this is, muſt appear from the ſeveral Proviſions of this Kind made in almoſt all Ages and Countries. And if Perſons, whoſe Families are too well provided for to need any ſuch Aſſiſtance, and who have no Connexion with the Clergy, except that Friendſhip, Eſteem, and Regard, which their Function claims from all Mankind, wou'd be pleaſed to encourage and protect it, they will receive the moſt ſincere Thanks of thoſe, whoſe Senſe of Gratitude is heightened by their Education; which Thanks are heartily given to the preſent generous Contributors.

By Order of the Truſtees and Subſcribers.

WILLIAM PRESTON, Secretary.

The Reverend { Mr. Com. Dawſon, Mr. T. Warrington, Mr. Wm. Robinſon, Mr. Wm. Preſton, Mr. John Camm, Mr. Muſg. Dawſon, } Truſtees.

Yeſterday,

Yeſterday the General Aſſembly of this Colony met, when his Honor the Governor was pleaſed to open the Seſſion with the following SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes.

BY Directions from Great-Britain, I now call you together, that you may conſider of ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt ſuitable to the preſent critical Situation and Circumſtances of the Britiſh Colonies on this Continent in general, and of this Dominion in particular.

By a Letter from Sir Thomas Robinſon, Secretary of State, which I ſhall cauſe to be laid before you, I was directed to provide a ſufficient Quantity of freſh Proviſions for the Uſe of the Troops from Ireland; on there Arrival here, Col. John Hunter, in Purſuance of my Orders and Directions did ſupply them; and I hope you will make the neceſſary Diſpoſition for his Reimburſement.

I have the Pleaſure to acquaint you, that his Majeſty, out of his great Regard for his Subjects on this Continent, and a proper Reſentment of the unjuſtifiable Invaſions and Encroachments of the French, on his American Dominions, has, of his gracious Goodneſs to us, ordered four Regiments, conſiſting each of a Thouſand Men, with a large Train of Artillery for our Aid and Aſſiſtance, beſides the Regiments now at Nova-Scotia, all at the Expence of the Crown of Great-Britain.

His Excellency General Braddock, Commander in Chief of all his Majeſty's Forces on this Continent; the Honorable Commodore Keppel, Commander of his Majeſty's Ships of War; the Governors of New England, New-York, Pennſylvania. Maryland, and myſelf, met in Council the 14th of laſt Month; where the Affairs of the Colonies were maturely conſidered, and a Plan of Operations for this Summer's Campaign adjuſted, with ſo much Judgement, that, if properly ſupported, the Deſigns of our Enemies will probably be defeated, and the Peace and Safety of our Country eſtabliſhed on the moſt permanent Foundations.

It was reported that Six French Men of War, with Tranſports, were arrived at Louiſburg: If it be ſo, that Reinforcement, added to the Forces and Militia in Canada, may prove too numerous for our preſent Force; and therefore, in Prudence, we ought to be provided for all Events, and with Spirit and Reſolution, raiſe Men and Money to reinforce and ſupport our preſent Forces.

The Operations of this Year, will, doubtleſs, be attended with conſiderable Expence; and without an adequate Aid from the Colonies, I dread the Conſequences!——Let me therefore intreat you (as it is now in your Power, if you properly exert yourſelves, to render the French Schemes abortive) that you would grant with Promptitude, ſuch a ſufficient Supply, as appears to be neceſſary at this critical Juncture; by which Means you will, in all Likelihood, prevent the Occaſion of much greater Expences hereafter, which muſt unavoidably ariſe from a Neglect at preſent.

Many of the other Colonies have ſhewn a good Spirit, and a juſt Regard to his Majeſty's Orders at this Time: The Supplies granted by them, I ſhall cauſe to be laid before you; and I hope their Conduct, will raiſe in you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes, a laudable Emulation; and that you will approve your Gratitude for his Majeſty's diſtinguiſhed Care, by rendering it effectual for his gracious Purpoſes, your Preſervation and Proſperity.

Expreſſes will be neceſſary from the Camp to Williamſburg.——Pennſylvania, and Maryland have laid Horſes from Winchester to their Colonies. The General ſends his Letters to Winchester, and I hope you will provide that Horſes may be held in Readineſs at proper Stages, for Diſpatches from thence to this Place.

The Ordinaries are very extravagant; the Subaltern Officers and Soldiers cannot pay as other tranſient Travellers, and I hope you will make a ſuitable Regulation in that Behalf.

The poor Men who ſuffered at the Meadows with Col. Waſhington, I recommend to your Favor, as they were diſabled in the Service of their Country.

I have received an Inſtruction from his Majeſty, relating to an Act of Aſſembly, in Regard to Executions and Relief of inſolvent Debtors; I am ordered to recommend it to you, to paſs an Act of the like Nature, with ſome Amendments, which I now do, and ſhall cauſe the Inſtruction to be laid before you.

Your laſt Vote of Supply was very agreably received at Home, and you were accordingly truly recommended for your dutiful Obedience to his Majeſty's Commands; continue thus to diſtinguiſh yourſelves the Sons of Britons, and convince the World, that the heroic martial Spirit of your Progenitors, (famed over the Univerſe) ſtill animates their Children in the remoteſt Regions.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes.

I am ſointimately acquainted with your impending Danger, and ſo earneſtly deſirous that it may be averted, that I cannot conclude without exhorting you to conſider, with the moſt ſerious Attention, the great and important Affairs which I have now laid before you, and the abſolute Neceſſity there is at preſent of the moſt vigorous and effectual Reſolutions, for the Preſervation of your Lives! Your Liberties! Your Properties! Your Religion! all that is held dear and ſacred among Mankind.

☞ All Perſons indebted to the Printer for GAZETTES &c. are deſired to be ſpeedy in diſcharging of their Accounts, as a great many of them are of a very long ſtanding.
